EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Industrial training often serves as a stepping stone to employment. This prepares the student for the challenges and responsibilities toward the work. My industrial training experience opened my eyes to a more complex world and increased my confidence prior to entering the job market. In addition it gave an idea of how the workplace operates

Problems of internal control and enhancement of process has been determined during the industrial training. In real life, we need the flexibility to solve the problem according to the situation and condition that applies. Good recommendations have been an importance tools for solving the problems.

At the end of the industrial training, student would find that obtaining work experience during the university often results in more job offers, higher starting salary and more frequent promotions.
