EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The objective of industrial training is to make the student gain a new knowledge and experience in related courses that they have learned. Industrial Training made the student get an opportunity in maritime industry.

In industrial training also made the student familiar with them to make them familiar with the working experience. This industrial training also made the student applied all the theory into the practical manner. That means the student can also feel comfortable and suitable when they explore the industry especially in maritime industry. It was very difficult to learn in maritime industry and also this industry cannot learn by the theory only.

In industrial training, the university was cooperating to the industrial because to born the student to explore the industry. The trainer must achieve and realize the existing objective regarding this training. In other prospect, absolutely this mission and objective were creating for the benefit of all parties involved. They also wanted to make the improvement process or research about the industry. Besides that, they can also the economic nation were increased.

So, I did the report in Target Logistics Sdn. Bhd. to give an exposure about the related industry. This company is relate to the logistics industry.
